

DISC ADVANCED Workshop

The DISC Profile® is one of the most widely used tools for understanding behaviour in the workplace. DISC Advanced provides a detailed analysis that assists people in understanding their preferred ways of working and communicating, and how this impacts others. It is extremely useful for team development.

Wed 28 May, 9.30am-4.00pm @ Uniting College, Brooklyn Park

1 Online Questionnaire

Participants complete an online questionnaire prior to the workshop.

2 Individualised Report

Participants receive a comprehensive report based on their responses.

3 Workshop Program

Participants are led through a process through which you will

- Develop an understanding of people's different behavioural styles
- Work on identifying your own behavioural styles
- Understand others' styles and how they interrelate with yours
- Work on improving communication and understanding
- Work on improving ways to work across teams
- Become clearer about your preferred work environment and how this may impact others

Dr Craig Mitchell

Craig is an accredited facilitator of both DISC Advanced and the Myers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI). Craig is a Uniting Church ministry worker and educator. He is the former National Director for Formation, Education and Discipleship for the UCA Assembly.

Workshop Feedback

"The facilitation has been great - creative, inclusive, a good balance of input and inviting us to engage and interact."

"I valued a third person perspective to share with colleagues about needs and ways to work together."

"DISC was interesting and new to me. It was spot on."

"Craig thinks it through and presents honestly without 'aims' or pretensions."

"Even though I have participated in DISC assessment before, I was fascinated and learnt a great deal in the process. It was also the most enjoyable." Rev Dr Tim Hein

Cost: $200
